

Business Analysis

Aim:

Critically analyse all aspects of business process development.

Delivery mode:

- On campus 2 weeks teaching
- Online and Self-study 120 hours
- Total 150 hours

Learning outcomes:

1. Define business analysis and give details of the skills and qualities required to be a successful business analyst.
2. Discuss models and techniques for developing strategies in an organisation.
3. Apply a range of appropriate techniques to investigate and capture the current situation in an organisation, to analyse stakeholder needs and to identify constraints.
4. Apply for a given case study the gathering, documenting and managing of requirements.
5. Apply appropriate models for business requirements.

Assessments

Assessment 1 – 50% weighting

LO 1,2,3

Explore the Business Analyst job title, description, skills required in a local job portal.

Discuss and apply techniques to develop strategies in an organisation meeting the organisation vision and mission statement.

Apply a range of techniques to investigate and capture current organisation situation for a given case study.

Assessment 2 – 50% weighting

LO 4,5

Apply gathering, documenting and managing requirements for a given case study. Apply appropriate models and recommending an improved business process through a new information system.

References

IIBA, K. B. (2009). A Guide to the Business Analysis Body of Knowledge. International Institute of Business Analysis.

Eva, M., Hindle, K., Paul, D., Rollaston, C., & Tudor, D. (2014). Business analysis. D. Paul, D. Yeates, & J. Cadle (Eds.). BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT.